Profile

I am an independent graphic designer influenced and passionate about typography, modern/ist design and architecture. Specialized in the field of visual communication, I undertake across a spectrum of disciplines; always committed to output long-lasting, thoughtful and intelligent design work.

Experience

2014 — Present / Independent graphic designer

My professional experience as a graphic designer has developed entirely on a self-taught and autonomous basis. Not only these experiences helped me to build and consolidate many design processes and methodologies, but it also taught me invaluable skills on how to manage a small design business operation.
